

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Pastor Charles Hall served the Foothills Community Baptist Church from March 1994 to December 2007. He served 5 years as the Black Hills Baptist Association children's camp director and as the Interim Director for Black Hills Baptist Association from 1998-1999; and,

Whereas, Pastor Hall was actively involved with the Cornerstone Rescue Mission by conducting weekly Bible studies. He faithfully and gently taught that God's love applies equally, no matter the kind of success achieved; and,

Whereas, Pastor Hall led Foothills Community Baptist Church to partner with churches from other denominations in the Piedmont Valley to promote and participate in community wide events; and

Whereas, Pastor Hall served as Evangelism and Prayer consultant for the Dakota Baptist convention. His positive efforts encouraged and assisted all 96 churches to make a difference as they engaged in outreach events; and,

Whereas, Pastor Hall was a faithful supporter of the Christian Motorcycle Association (CMA) by leading the church to provide housing and meals each year to over two dozen CMA members, as they conducted ministry at the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally; and,

Whereas, Pastor Hall was personally involved in "Jacob's Well" each year during the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally, as they offered free blood pressure checks and gave out water to weary motorcycle riders:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 15, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of May the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.
